Lastly, think as a group how often to swap. Monthly or every two months? There is no rush on this project. This is a way to get to know others in the guild and explore other relationships. Feel free to text and encourage others in your group and even think about gathering together.

Put this in your zipped case and it will get passed to one of your teammates. Consider making a zipper tag with your contact info. Put your preferences in your bag along with your panel or fabrics you want to use.
